

MASTER'S FOUNDATION

GOD'S HEART. OUR HANDS. UKRAINE'S HOPE.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

This February 24th marked four years since the full scale war in Ukraine began.

In late February, I traveled to Ukraine with our Vice President, Kevin Theriault, and evangelist Chuck Price. As we moved from west to east, one thing stood out clearly, cemeteries in each community continue to grow.

Fresh graves marked by the Ukrainian flag, photos marking each life, along with expanding memorials, quietly remind us that the cost of this war is still being paid every day.

We met displaced children, families living with uncertainty, wounded soldiers living with life-altering injuries and an uncertain path ahead and widows now raising their children alone. Despite everything, there remains a deep strength among the people. These are the very ones God has called us to serve. At Masters Foundation, our mission remains clear "God's heart, our hands, Ukraine's hope."

Today, I am writing to you with urgency and hope.

This past year, we experienced a shortfall in giving, even as needs continue to grow. All of our support to Ukraine is provided in U.S. funds, and with rising costs, the pressure has only increased.

As we head into this critical season, we are focusing on two key initiatives, summer camps for children and a new initiative we are calling "Widows of War" retreats. You can read more about them in our enclosed newsletter "The Mission". We have committed $51,000 USD to ensure these camps and retreats can go forward this summer.

These are not simply programs, they are lifelines. We are committed to moving forward but we cannot do it without your help.

I would ask you to prayerfully consider making a special gift at this time. Your support will directly impact the lives of children and widows who need it most right now.

Just as importantly, we invite you to help us spread the word about Masters Foundation and the work being done.

Ukraine is still hurting. But together, we can continue to bring hope.

With sincere gratitude,

Walter Semeniuk
President

FROM LVIV TO SUMY: A JOURNEY OF HOPE

In March, our team from Master's Foundation had the privilege of travelling back to Ukraine. We were joined by Chuck Price from Reapers in the Rain. We travelled from Lviv in the west to Sumy in the east, 40 km from the Russian border. Journeying over 2000 km, we did 7 community outreaches in 9 days. During this trip, we witnessed both the realities of war and the unshakable strength of the people.

In cities and towns, we encountered people longing not only for practical help, but for encouragement and hope. Hundreds came forward for prayer and didn't want to leave. Over 140 people accepted the good news of the gospel.

Everywhere we went, mothers came asking for prayer for their husbands and sons serving on the frontlines. We also heard many stories of hardship, sorrow and loss. But in the midst of it all, we saw faith in action with hearts and hope being restored.

MEET ALEXANDER: SERVING WITH LOVE IN LUTSK

Meet Alexander from Lutsk, a compassionate leader whose team is devoted to serving children, teens, and displaced families in their community.

Besides offering faith based programs for young and old alike, their outreach also extends to orphanages and rehabilitation centres, bringing encouragement and care to those who need it most. Each year, their summer camps are a joyful community highlight, giving children and teens a chance to experience hope, friendship, and fun.

As waves of internally displaced people continue to arrive, Team Lutsk responds with open hearts by providing housing and hosting a soup kitchen twice a week in a city park, where anyone can come to receive a warm meal and bread to take home.

Whatever the need, Team Lutsk is there, ready to help. Every small act of kindness is always shared with great love. Alexander believes that, with God, there are no borders to God's care. With your financial and prayerful support, Team Lutsk is able to continue to offer help and hope to the people of their community.

GOD'S BLANKET OF LOVE: LVIV WOMEN'S CONFERENCE.

By Ruth Semeniuk

A few months ago, I was invited to do a women's conference Master's Foundation was sponsoring at Bethesda church in Lviv, Ukraine.

Our day started by being awakened before dawn, to the alarming sirens of war. I began to wonder how many women would end up attending. True to their resilient nature, a full house of women arrived, ready to worship and hear an encouraging word.

As we entered into the room, we were welcomed by a strong impression of warmth, peace and love. I have never felt such a quiet, yet powerful sense of God's presence that day, especially during worship and while speaking. With tears, one woman likened it to a blanket of love embracing us as a whole. Together, we expressed our emotions...sorrow, fear, peace and joy. We truly experienced just how much God cares for us as women.

God's heart for the women of Ukraine has left an indelible mark upon my heart. This month I return to minister in Ukraine once again. This time, I will also be visiting a weekend grief retreat, Widows of War, sponsored by Master's Foundation in partnership with Open Doors, Ukraine.

Please pray and consider supporting us in this new and timely endeavour. God deeply cares about widows in their grief. Will you help us alleviate their distress?

WIDOWS OF WAR: OUR NEWEST MINISTRY

Master's Foundation is pleased to announce their newest ministry....Widows of War.

Partnering with Open Doors, Ukraine, this new ministry seeks to help grieving widows deal with the loss of their loved ones.

With fully trained professionals that are also accredited by the Ukrainian government, we have committed to sponsor 2 weekend retreats where those suffering loss can find a safe place for their whole family to share their grief as they learn to adjust to life without their loved ones.

Over 2 days, they will discover that they are not alone and will be given the comfort, encouragement and counselling needed to strengthen and rebuild their lives going forward.

The number of families experiencing this kind of loss in Ukraine is great and only increasing.

Will you help us offer hope and healing to widows in their distress? Sponsoring two retreats will cost $10,000USD. Please consider giving generously for those who have suffered unimaginable loss because of this war.

CELEBRATING CHILDREN AND TEENS WITH SUMMER CAMPS!

With your help, we can send over 1200 kids to camp this summer!

With warm weather just around the corner, it's time to celebrate Ukrainian children and teens.

After a brutally cold winter and record drone and missile attacks this past year, Master's Foundation would like to send as many kids as possible to summer camp.

We would love to send 700 campers, plus 100 autistic children and 450 orphans to experience a fun and caring reprieve from Ukraine's ongoing war. The cost for sending 1250 kids to camp is $41,000USD

Let's treat these kids like our very own. Let's be generous beyond measure!
